12. POLICE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES DURING THE MONTH

- Officer Wayne Pursell gave a presentation on driver safety and Vehicle Code laws to the student drivers' training class at the Souderton Area High School on August 19th.
- On August 19th, principals from the high school and district administrators met with the local chiefs of police to discuss the upcoming school year.
- All officers reviewed an in-house training module from PP&L that provided safe practices for officers who respond to calls for utility wires that are down as well as other utility emergencies.
- Sgt. Steve Rinker began preparations for our first Coffee with a Cop series, which made its debut on September 9th. An officer from the department met with customers at the Franconia Café in an informal setting to discuss any issues of concern. Future dates and locations will be announced shortly.
