POLICE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES DURING THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 2018

November 2 – Warrant Service – Officer Frary and Chief Martin were assisted by officers from Hatfield and Souderton Police Departments in successfully serving an arrest warrant on a potentially violent township resident who was wanted for harassment and stalking.

November 8 – Chief Martin was the keynote speaker and guest of Supervisor David Fazio at the monthly Indian Valley Rotary Club Meeting.

November 12 - 16 – FBI LEEDA Certification - Det. Sgt. Moyer completed the third and final segment of the intensive FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Association's training course. The course, which was held for three, one-week sessions over the past four months was taught by subject matter experts from all over the United States. As a result of his successful completion in this prestigious training, Det. Sgt. Moyer now holds a certificate in Law Enforcement Executive Development.

November 14 – Training – Officer Glenn Kranich earned certification as a trainer in the De-Escalation - T3 (Tact, Tactics, Trust) Training. The class which was presented by Polis Solutions Consulting group is an evidence-based training that combines essential officer safety, communication, and trust building skills into a unified curriculum. These skills determine officers' safety and effectiveness on every public interaction, as well as during their interaction with subordinates, peers and leaders.

November 16 – School-based Community Policing – Chief Martin joined members of the Souderton Police Department in serving Thanksgiving lunch to all of the students of the West Broad Street Elementary School.

November 20 – Annual Firearms Qualifications – Five Officers successfully completed mandatory annual firearms qualifications at the Montgomery County Range.

November 26 – Meet & Greet – Supervisor David Fazio, Twp. Mgr. Jon Hammer and Chief Martin hosted a Meet & Greet session at the Franconia Township Administration Building.

November 27 – Training/Public Outreach – Det. Sgt. Moyer and Chief Martin participated in a training and networking session for members of Faith-based Organizations throughout Montgomery County. The program was presented by the Montgomery County Department of Public Safety in an effort to prepare religious entities for possible active shooter situations.

November 30 – Training – Chief Martin attended a training session on the Right to Know Law and the process for Criminal Record Expungements presented by the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael L. Martin, Chief of Police
