12. POLICE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES DURING THE MONTH

- The Living Faith Church held a community breakfast on Monday, January 15th at their facility on Moyer Road. Members of the police department joined many volunteers from the area firefighting and EMS communities to enjoy the food and camaraderie. The church congregation holds this annual event to honor the First Responders in the Indian Valley.
- On January 24th, Chief Kozeniewski and Detective Sergeant Moyer hosted five teachers from the Souderton Area School District for their annual Teachers in the Workplace program. For most of the morning, they were provided with guided tours of the police station and vehicles. This was followed by a question and answer forum in which they learned many of the more intimate details of the life of law enforcement officers.

Respectfully submitted,
