

NEWS RELEASE

FRANCONIA TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT Telephone: 215-723-6777
P.O. Box 128 671 Allentown Road Facsimile: 215-723-1165
Franconia, Pennsylvania 18924-0128

Contact Person: Chief Joseph S. Kozeniewski

September 16, 2008

Subjects Arrested for Theft

On September 10, 2008, police officers from the Franconia Township Police Department arrested two people in connection with thefts from vehicles on August 13, 2008 at the Indian Valley Country Club located at 650 Bergey Road in Franconia Township.

Lewis Davenport, Jr., 31, of the 600 block of West Berwick Street in Easton and Daniel Rice, 29, of the of the 100 block of East Nesquehoning Street in Eason were both arrested and charged with theft by unlawful taking, access device fraud, theft by deception, receiving stolen property, and conspiracy.

Davenport and Rice were both arraigned before Magisterial District Justice Joseph Dougherty in Abington Township on September 10, 2008. Bail was set at $10,000 cash bail for each, and they were remanded back to the Montgomery County Correctional Facility.

Ronald Brewer, 39, of the 300 block of North 14th Street in Easton was arrested on September 11, 2008 and charged with theft by unlawful taking, access device fraud, theft by deception, receiving stolen property and conspiracy in connection with the same thefts on August 13, 2008.

Brewer was arraigned before Magisterial District Justice David Keightly of Montgomery Township on September 11, 2008. Bail was set at 10,000 unsecured. He was then returned to the Northampton County Prison on unrelated charges.

On August 16, 2008 there were additional unrelated thefts from vehicles at the Indian Valley Country Club. These thefts are still under investigation.

-END-