Township Wins Statewide Award for Communications Effort

Franconia Township, Montgomery County, has received third place honors for its entry in the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors' 38th Annual Township Citizen Communication Contest. The annual contest recognizes townships that have successfully communicated programs and activities to citizens.

Franconia Township was chosen as the third place winner in the "Miscellaneous Communications Media – Internet Home Pages" category.

All entries were judged on the usefulness of information presented and how well the information was communicated to township residents.

Judges for the contest included members of the association's Publications-Public Relations Committee, representatives from the Governor's Center for Local Government Services, and staff members of the Pennsylvania Township News, the association's official monthly magazine.

The Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors represents Pennsylvania's 1,456 townships of the second class and is committed to preserving and
