POLICE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES DURING THE MONTH

September 4 Annual Firearms Qualifications – Six Officers successfully completed mandatory annual firearms qualifications at the Montgomery County Range. The remaining officers will qualify in November, 2018.

September 11 & 13 Computer Training – All sworn and civilian police personnel attended a training seminar on the use of the newly acquired Montgomery County Records Management System, ALEIS. The new system will replace the current Metro Alert RMS and connect our police department with 27 other departments in the county.

September 15 Community Relations – Det. Sgt. Moyer attended the Peter Becker Community fair & Car Show.

- Chief Martin, Det. Sgt. Moyer, Cpl. Cronin and Ofc. Kochersperger attended to Souderton Area School District “Big Bash & Car Show”.

September 19 Active Shooter Drill – The police department organized and conducted an Active Shooter Drill at the Peter Becker Community. Participating officers were Chief Martin, Sgt. Moyer, Cpl. Hall, Ofc. Kochersperger and Lower Salford Officer Buck. The drill took place as a “real time” event in order to test the preparedness of staff in addition to serving as a learning and evaluation instrument.

September 20 Meet & Greet – Supervisor David Fazio, Twp. Mgr. Jon Hammer and Chief Martin attended a Meet & Greet session at the Hidden Springs Home Owner’s Assoc.

September 21/22 DUI Checkpoint – Franconia Twp. PD conducted the checkpoint as a member of the North Penn Area DUI Task Force. Cpl. Hall coordinated the operation which was staffed by himself, Sgt. Moyer, officers Frary, Pursell, Boyle and Kranich. Additionally, officers from Marlborough Twp., Telford Borough, U. Gwenedd, Hatfield, Lansdale and Lower Salford participated. Units from Souderton Ambulance and Telford Fire Department also assisted at the scene.

September 25 Meet & Greet – Supervisor David Fazio, Twp. Mgr. Jon Hammer and Chief Martin attended a Meet & Greet session at the Lion’s Gate Home Owner’s Assoc.

September 26 Meet & Greet – Supervisor David Fazio, Twp. Mgr. Jon Hammer and Chief Martin attended a Meet & Greet session at the Harrington Village Home Owner’s Assoc.

New Records Management System – All police personnel attending training sessions for the new record’s management system, known as ALEIS, at the Montgomery County Communications Center

Respectfully submitted,

Michael L. Martin
Chief of Police
