Vehicle Accident Involving Injuries

On Wednesday, July 1, 2009, at 8:29 p.m. police were called to the area of Allentown Road and Harleysville Pike in Franconia Township for a report of a reckless driver. Police located a green 2002 Saturn overturned on its roof on Allentown Road near Bragg Road.

Witnesses stated the Saturn was travelling southbound on Allentown Road with blown out rear tires. The driver then lost control of the vehicle, which overturned in the area of Bragg Road.

The driver of the vehicle was identified as Collin Lubbe, 27, of the 500 block of Arthur Street in Philadelphia. He was flown to Temple University Hospital with unknown injuries.

Harleysville Ambulance assisted police on scene. This accident is still under investigation.
