RECENT ARRESTS BY POLICE

On Saturday, October 24, 2009 at 1:10 a.m., Franconia Township police officers stopped a grey Porsche 911 turbo in the area of Cowpath Road and Forrest Road for a moving violation.

Police identified the driver of the Porsche as Alfred Seiple, 49, of the 1000 block of Ingrams Way, Telford. As police were speaking with the driver, they detected a strong odor of alcohol coming from him. After an investigation, Seiple was arrested for Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol.

Seiple was taken to the DUI Fast Track Center at the Towamencin Township Police Department and was later released.

On the same night at 2:50 a.m., Franconia Township police officers stopped a silver Volkswagen Jetta for a moving violation in the 800 block of Mill Road in Franconia Township.

Police identified the driver of the Volkswagen as Andrew Maier, 22, of the 800 block of Sullivan Drive, Lansdale. As police were speaking with the driver, officers identified a strong odor of alcohol on his person. After an investigation, Maier was arrested for Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol.

He was also taken to the Towamencin processing center and released.
